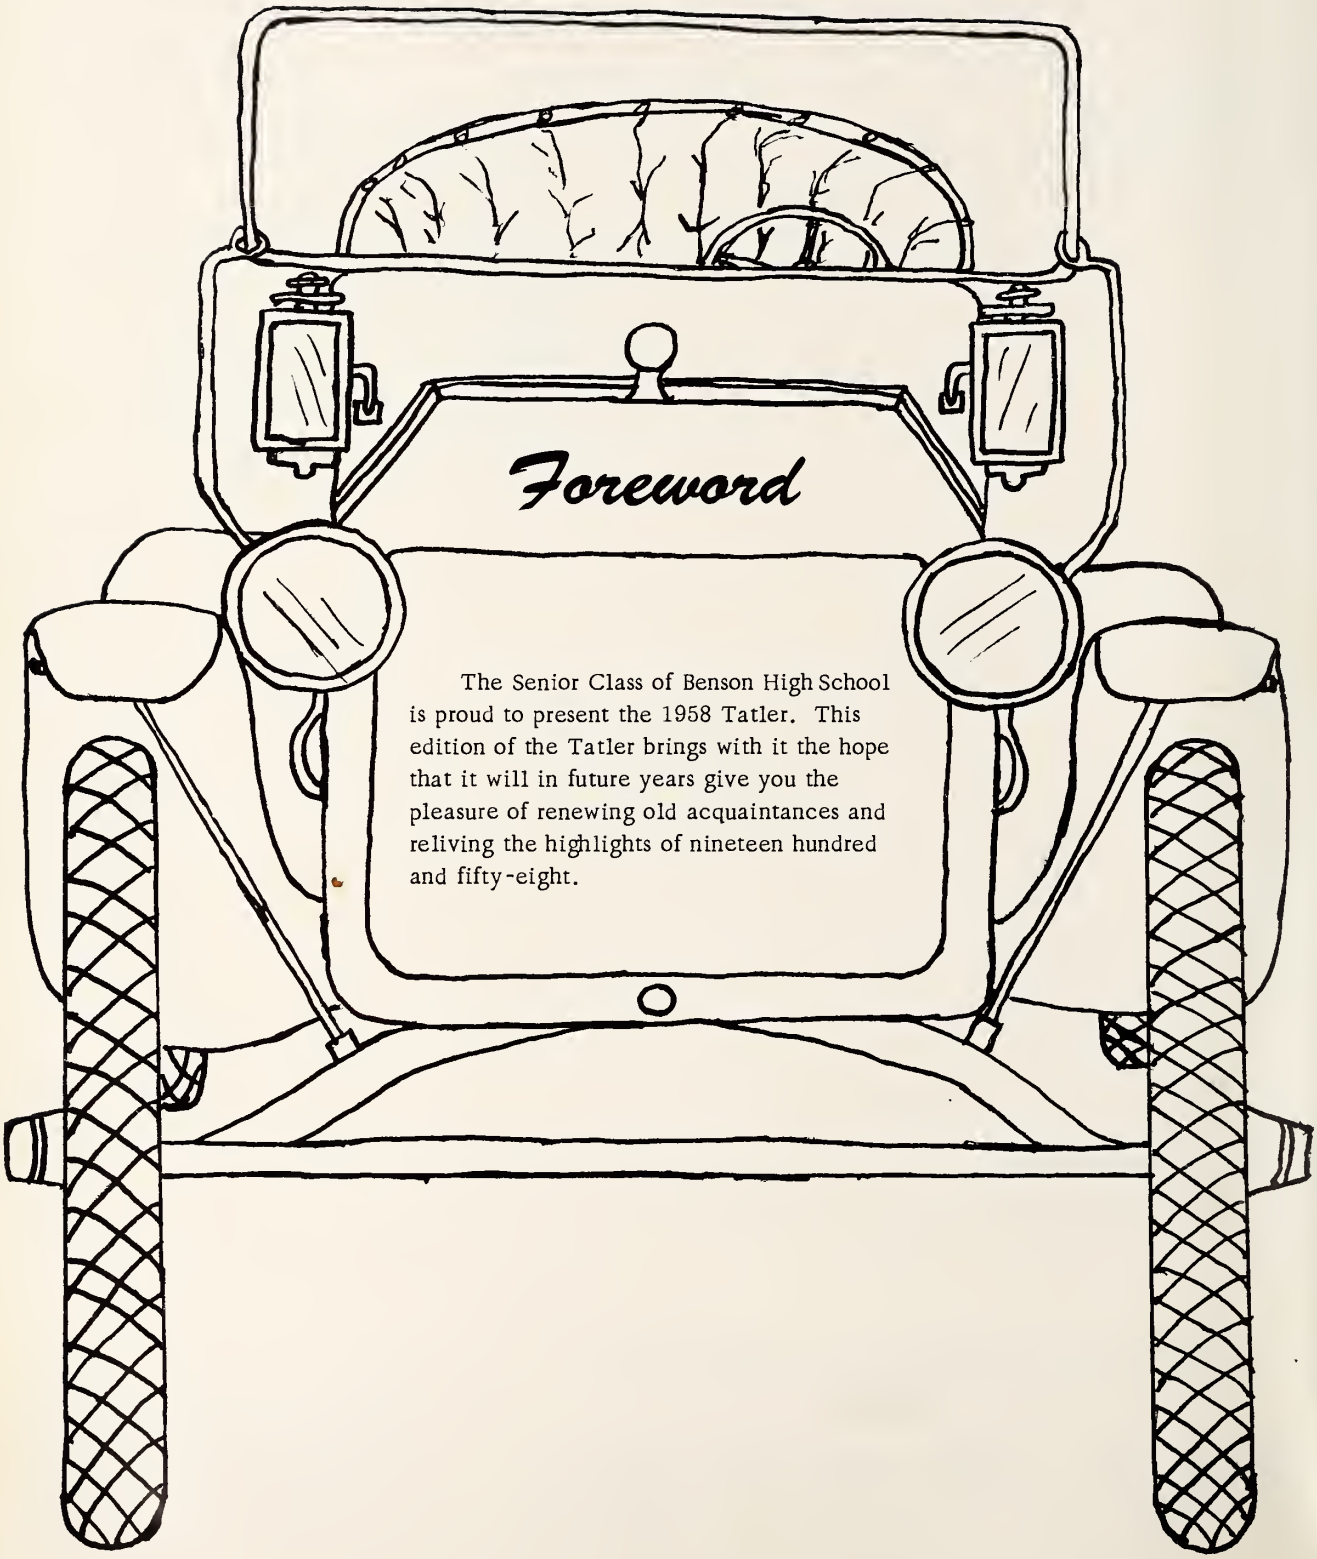
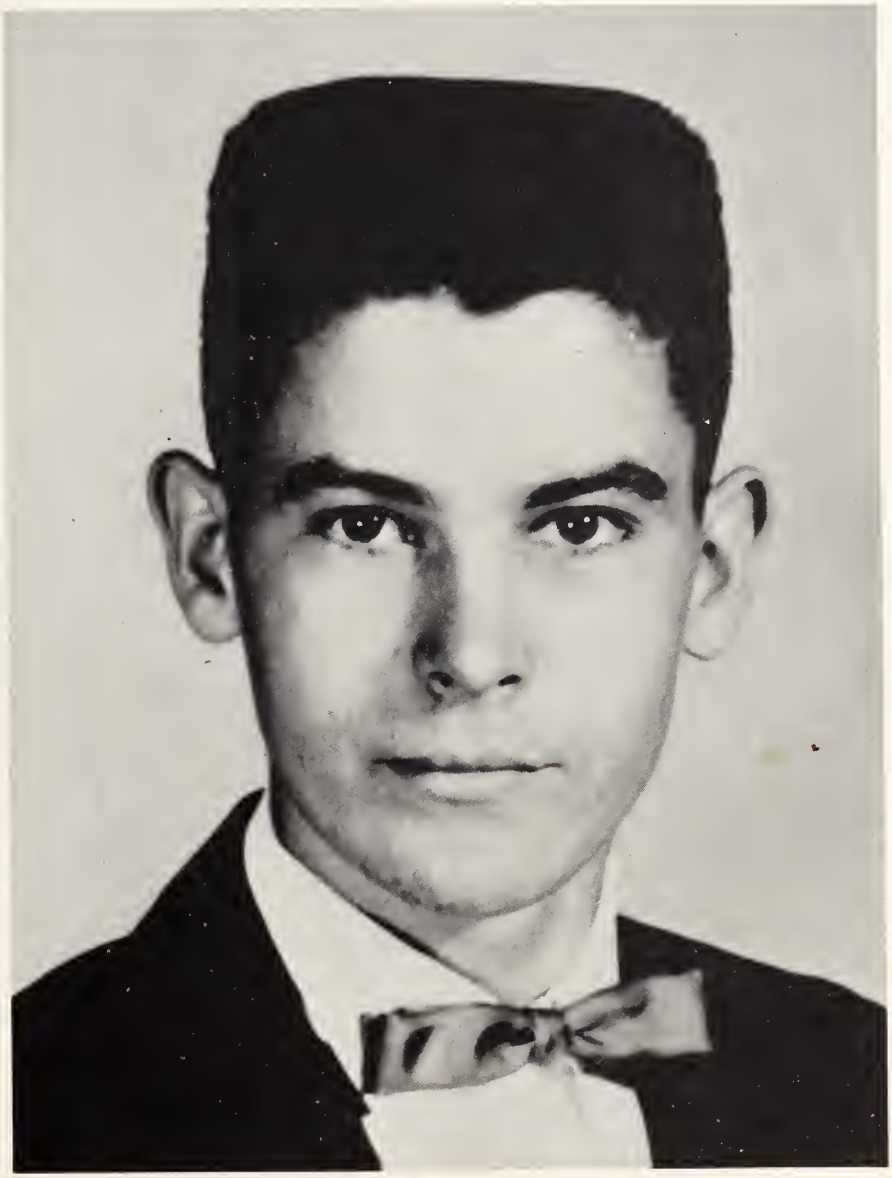
TATLER



Foreword

The Senior Class of Benson High School is proud to present the 1958 Tatler. This edition of the Tatler brings with it the hope that it will in future years give you the pleasure of renewing old acquaintances and reliving the highlights of nineteen hundred and fifty-eight.

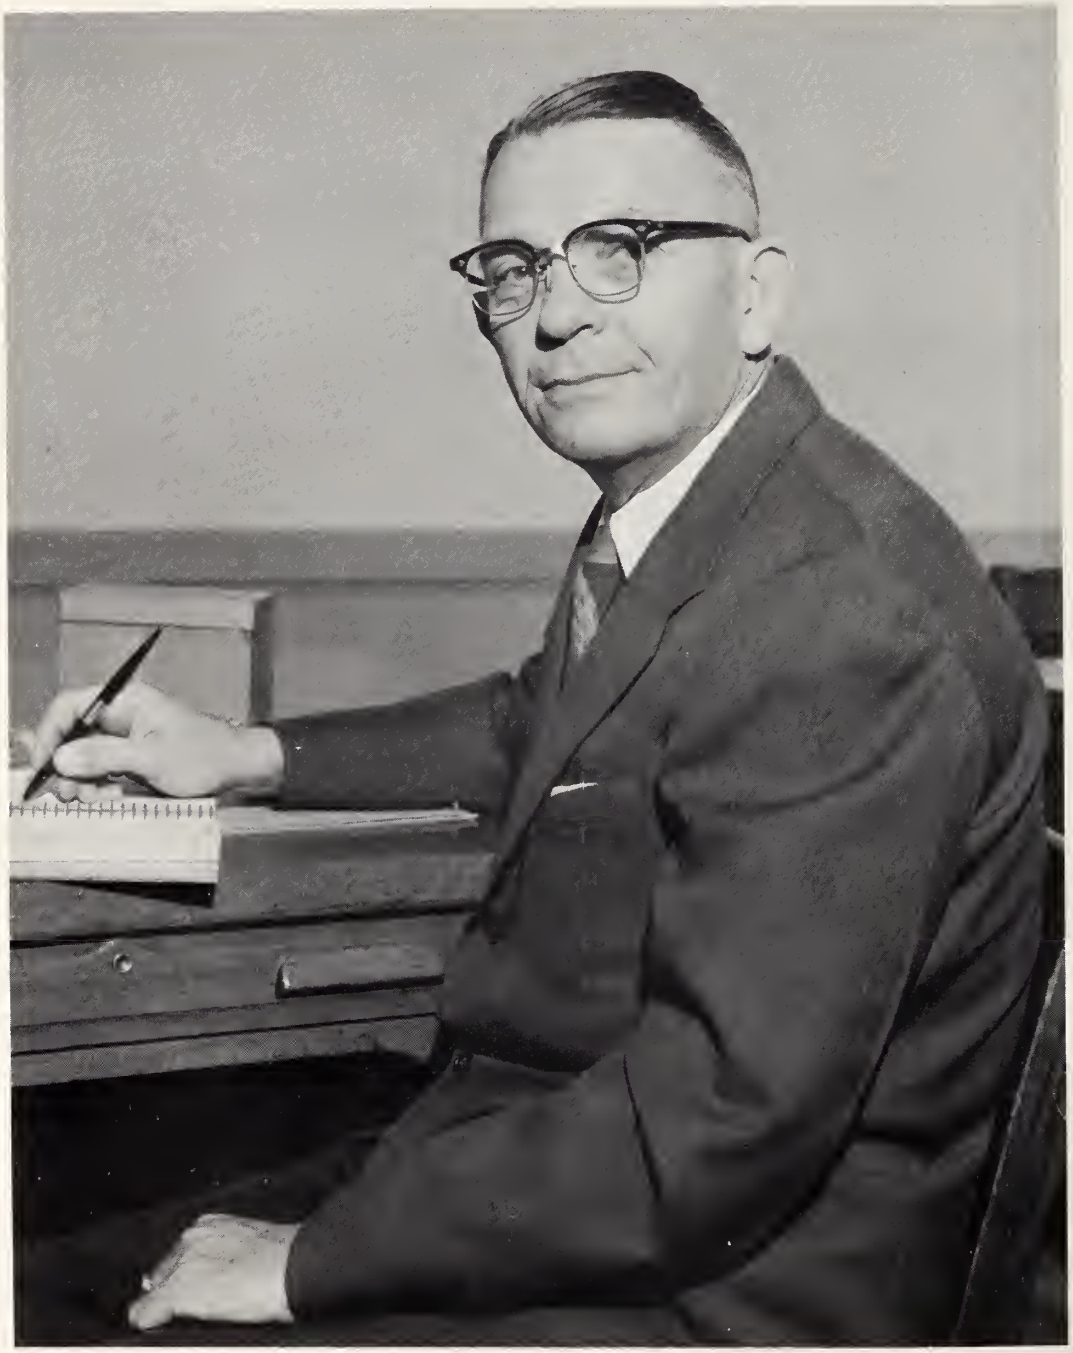
In Memoriam



Our Classmate
FRANK LANGDON

July 28, 1940
December 7, 1956
His life was a quiet example of kindness, loyalty, and devotion.

Dedication



We, the Senior Class, proudly dedicate this, our volume of The Tatler, to Mr. William J. Barefoot, thanking him for the help and guidance that he has given us through our school years.

Principal's Message

To Senior Class of 1958:

As you leave our high school this year, we want you to know that you have made a definite and constructive contribution to the life of our school. You have been a class of high ideals, persistent effort and good citizenship. Many of your group have made outstanding records in scholarship and other school activities.

Many problems will confront you as you leave us. I trust you have gained some insight into the many intricate problems now facing our country and the world. These difficult problems will require a high devotion to duty, personal integrity, a high degree of responsibility, and above all a loyal devotion to the highest and best of our moral and spiritual values. To help you fill your place honorably and effectively in a world of turmoil, you will need the help and advice of friends, knowledge and understanding of current events, and above all, guidance and help from our Divine Creator. Humility and reverence will be required of you at all times if you are to serve well your fellow-man, your community and your God.

We are living in an age of tremendous scientific advancement. Atomic bombs, hydrogen bombs, missiles, space rockets, etc. are common words in the vocabulary of even our younger people. Certainly the great advances made in the field of science have placed the human race in such a position as to eradicate itself or to use these great advances for the good of humanity. We are in doubt as to whether our moral and spiritual progress has kept pace with our scientific progress. Has the education of the heart kept pace with the education of the head? Your generation will answer this question.

Throughout the ages, men have sought to find their greatest comfort and solace in the material things of life. To a very limited degree they have succeeded. However, in the final accounting of all things, it will be the great Imperishables of Life which have given men their greatest comfort and satisfaction. These great spiritual values have endured throughout the ages and will continue to endure throughout the endless ages of eternity. I point you to a careful study of the fifth chapter of St. Matthew for these abiding values. These are the great principles which will endure after the material things of this life have all decayed and passed from the earth.

My sincere wish for you is that you will endeavor to find and follow in your useful and fruitful years ahead these great and abiding spiritual values.

Prophecy

You are invited:
To What? A Masquerade Party
When? May 28, 1968
Where? At the Satellite Club in Benson
Why? To renew old acquaintances
What time? 9:00 p.m.

A very large crowd has already arrived. Everyone is talking and laughing, remembering days at Benson High School. Suddenly someone draws the attention of the crowd. It is Charles Jernigan. He is going to introduce everyone. It is twelve o'clock and everyone must unmask.

The first person introduced is J. E. Lee. He is a very successful farmer and owns very much land.

Next, Betty Anne West, Rosalie Gilbert, and Martha Glover are introduced. Their dreams are now fulfilled. They are happily married, live near each other, and have telephones.

Next on the platform is Linda Faye Wood. She has just returned from India where she directed her latest movie starring Tommy Barbour and Emma Lou Holmes.

Brenda Langdon, better known as "Lanky," is a basketball coach. She joins the group and is followed by Delores Vernelson, a famous model, and Jimmy Stuart. Jimmy is a bookkeeper in a large firm. We know it is bankrupt.

Taking their places among the others, we see Andrew Norris, Charles Ray Ennis, and Becky Smith. Andrew now has a part in the play "Romeo and Juliet." Knowing Andrew, it isn't hard to guess which his part is. Charles Ray is pianist for Lawrence Welk. Becky has established herself in the medical field as a technologist.

Max Johnson and Lawrence Campbell surely aren't going to be left out. They own a Super Market downtown. With them are Vasco Creech and Phil Norris. Vasco is an executive in the Creech & Creech Company, and Phil is running for Mayor next election.

Sybil Whittington, Annie Ruth Lee I, and Sue Creech look very cute in their white uniforms. You couldn't find three better nurses anywhere. Louie Belle Johnson is going to meet them. She works at the same hospital as a dental assistant.

Ernestine Stephenson is down here from Connecticut visiting her mother. We are glad that she is with us. With her are Jewel Grimes and Hilda Jones. They are walking around here with diamonds on their left hand. They sure do look happy.

Here come Rayvon Adams, Rayford Stevens, and Wayne Parrish strutting up on the platform. They are the three biggest tobacco farmers in North Carolina.

We now see a very distinguished man walk up to the microphone. It is Tommy Stephenson, a famous nuclear scientist. With him is his private secretary, Lucinda Matthews.

Following them are Judy Dixon and Jackie Ennis. Jackie is editor of a famous New York paper. Judy is assistant editor.

We are very proud of our class. Here come two men we can well be proud of, Jerry Langdon and Billy Parrish. Jerry plays professional baseball and Billy is the joke writer of a very prominent magazine.

Wade Johnson and Larry Young come in late. They had to check on their chain of restaurants before attending the party.

Ray Jones and Billy Godwin are spotted in the crowd. They have found that their diplomas have enabled them to get very good jobs in large firms.

We hear someone laughing. Without turning, we know who it is: Dura Faye Barbour, Judith Neighbors, and Mary Benson, all secretaries. Their main duty is to sit on the boss's knee.

Carolyn Phillips, Jane Haller, and Linda Johnson take a seat. Jane and Carolyn are now airline hostesses. Linda couldn't stand the altitude so she quit and got married.

Linda Denning, looking very well indeed, is part owner of a theater. Annie Ruth Lee II, Melba Beasley, and Mary Coats now have a trio and have taken the place of the McGuire Sisters. They now have a hit record.

Max Barbour is talking to Sue Beasley and Vivian Barbour. Max is a jockey. He has won several races with the help of the horse. Sue just dropped in to say hello. She is on her way to Florida. Vivian has a job in an office. She got some wonderful training at Benson High School.

Judy Freeman and Joyce Anne Lee seem to have very much in common. They teach at Benson High. Judy is taking the place of Mr. Stephens and Joyce Anne the place of Mrs. Lambert.

We must all leave this wonderful place. I, Bette Anne Wood, must prepare my lesson for tomorrow's class and I, Vivian Joyce Parker, must return home to my husband and children. We shall not soon forget this night or our days at Benson High School.

Twelve Years of Jostling

Stop--Flat Tire! Our years together will not flatten, but will remain inflated forever.
Materials: Pupils, teachers, fun, sincerity, loyalty, better understanding of our fellow human being.
Method:

Bolt I.

It all began on an autumn morning about twelve years ago when our proud mamas, after much dressing, coaxing and bribing, dragged us off for our first day at school. Were we scared!!! After all, we were being thrown out into the cold old world for the first time. We were approaching new fields to conquer, new friends, new joys, and new hardships. We were embarking on many long, hard, and wonderful years together, which have turned out to be entirely too short and not so hard and twice as wonderful. But before we go too far, let's begin just a few years back.

Bolt II.

We had finally reached eighth grade and after studying extra hard for a year we embarked upon Benson High as "Fresh Freshmen." Our freshman officers were Jackie Ennis, President; Joy Byrd, Vice President; Bette Anne Wood, Secretary; and Emma Lou Holmes, Treasurer. With the guidance of our sponsors, Mr. J. W. Thompson, Mrs. Nancy Willis, and Mrs. Mattie Lou Penny, we finally reached our sophomore year, and changed our name to "Sloppy Sophs."

During our sophomore year Linda Faye Wood was elected president, with Mr. J. L. Stephens and Mr. W. G. Corbett as advisers. We sponsored the Sauline Players to help increase our class pocketbook, and before we knew it two years of high school were behind us and two ahead.

Bolt III.

We finally made for ourselves--"Jolly Juniors." What a year for us! With our officers, Charles Ray Ennis, President; Billy Godwin, Vice President; Judy Neighbors, Secretary; Lucinda Matthews, Treasurer; and our sponsors, Miss Emily Milton and Mr. J. W. Woodworth, we passed a successful year. Stunt Night, as well as our play, THE RED-HEADED STEPCHILD, contributed to our bankroll for the forthcoming banquet. Our Christmas party at the gym was a highlight of the holiday season. The coming of Spring meant only one thing--Junior-Senior at the Country Club. Under a ceiling of blue stars and the theme "Fantasia," we dined and danced until midnight, adding many memories to our collection. Graduation came, with Bette Anne Wood as chief marshal, assisted by Rebecca Smith, Vivian Joyce Parker, Joyce Anne Lee, Judy Freeman, Judy Dixon, Jackie Ennis, and Tommy Stephenson.

The Finish

As "Sophisticated Seniors" we tightened the final bolts on the wheel. This was the final year of school for some, but only a stepping stone for others. We began the year by electing as class officers Charles Ray Ennis, President; Billy Godwin, Vice President; Linda Denning, Secretary; and Brenda Langdon and Dura Barbour, Treasurers. Class rings arrived in October (our hands were stiff for weeks from holding them out); mascots, Cindy Parrish and Tommy Chapin, were chosen in October; and LINDY LOU was our play. We looked forward to the rest of our last year in high school and at long last--Graduation.

But for none of us is this the finish, for--
"The Best Is Yet To Come."

The Last Will and Testament

State of North Carolina
County of Johnston
Town of Benson
We, the Senior Class of 1958, completing our travels through the Land of Knowledge, having reached our goal, graduation, and wishing to leave some of our valuable possessions to our Alma Mater and underclassmen, do make, declare, and publish this our last will and testament.

Section I

Article 1.

To our mothers and fathers we leave our sincere love and appreciation for their lasting effort which has made it possible for us to attend school.

To our dear old Alma Mater we leave memories of our unforgettable school days.

Section II

Article 2.

To our senior sponsors, Mrs. Annalean Johnson and Mrs. Louise Lambert, we leave our deepest thanks for their hard work in seeing us through our last year in high school.

To the remainder of the faculty we leave our sincerest hopes that Father Time will fill their future years with happiness.

To our principal, Mr. Barefoot, we leave our sincere love and gratitude for his patience and understanding.

Section III

Article 3.

To the Junior Class we leave all of our SENIOR PRIVILEGES (if we have any) and hope they find space on our desks to write their names.

To the Sophomore Class we leave our love and best wishes in the coming years.

To the Freshman Class we leave five hundred and forty school days and hope that everyone will reach the top.

Section IV

Article 1.

To the underclassmen:

I, Rayvon Adams, leave my ability to draw to Billy Barbour.
I, Dura Barbour, leave my title as FFA Sweetheart to any girl who can manage all those boys.
I, Max Barbour, leave my ability to graduate without taking books home, to Harold Godwin.
I, Tommy Barbour, leave my ability to flirt with all the girls and not get killed by their boy friends, to Dan Johnson.
I, Vivian Barbour, leave my place in the office to Sharon Barbour.
I, Melba Beasley, leave my carefree ways and good times to anyone who can find them.
I, Sue Beasley, leave the good times that I had at good old B.H.S. and just say good-bye.
I, Mary Alice Benson, leave my typing ability to Becky Benson.
I, Lawrence Campbell, leave my title as "Most Dependable" to anyone who has been around as long as I.
I, Mary Coats, leave my ability to date the same boy four years and graduate, to anyone who can do it.
I, Sue Creech, leave my ability to play basketball to Arlene Ennis.
I, Vasco Creech, leave my broken nose to the Hall of Memory of the football team.
I, Linda Lou Denning, leave my title as "Best Personality" to my brother, Roy Wood Denning.
I, Judy Dixon, leave my position on the basketball team to anybody who can run fast enough to make the team.
I, Charles Ray Ennis, leave my musical talent to anyone in high school in the years to come.
I, Jackie Ennis, leave my height to Don Parrish.
I, Judy Freeman, leave my title as "Best-All-Round" to Marie Arrington.

We, Rosalie Gilbert, Martha Glover, and Betty Anne West, leave our love to eat during class to anyone who can get by with it.
I, Billy Godwin, leave my ability to make a star left-end on the football team in one year to my brother, Harold Godwin.
I, Jewel Grimes, leave my desk in the Senior Class to my sister, Judy Grimes.
I, Jane Haller, leave my "one-man" policy to Judy Massingill.
I, Emma Lou Holmes, leave my place as "Best Dressed" to Rachel Wheeler.
I, Charles Jernigan, leave my desk and English book to Mrs. Lambert, hoping that she has better luck with the next person to whom she issues the book.
I, Linda Johnson, leave my height to Martha Hill.
I, Louie Belle Johnson, leave my ability to be a superlative, drive a bus, and keep a good boy friend, to anyone who can do them all.
I, Max Johnson, leave my ability to be a superlative and play basketball to anyone who can do it all.
I, Wade Johnson, leave my ability to act to anyone who can.
I, Hilda Jones, leave my desk in the senior room to my sister, Brenda Jones.
I, Ray Jones, leave my ability to get up in class and talk, to my brother, Roy Jones.
I, Brenda Langdon, leave my scattered brains to whoever wants to pick them up, hoping Robin Vann misses them.
I, Jerry Langdon, leave my ability to play center-field and steal bases without being put out to any young Mickey Mantel.
I, Annie Ruth Lee I, leave my ability to get out of school the easy way, to the smart one that can do it.
I, Annie Ruth Lee II, leave my ability to read shorthand to anyone who doesn't know better than to take it.
I, J. E. Lee, leave my ability to drive bus 163 to anybody who has the patience.
I, Joyce Anne Lee, leave my position in the office sixth period to Linda Stewart and Jerald Denning.
I, Lucinda Matthews, just leave.
I, Judith Neighbors, leave my title as "Cutest" to Sue Parrish.
I, Andrew Norris, leave my position on the basketball team to one of my two brothers in high school.
I, Phil Norris, leave my ability to "lay out" of school without getting caught to Dale Holmes.
I, Vivian Lee Parker, leave my ability to marry at sixteen and still complete school to Janice Hall.
I, Billy (Puckett) Parrish, leave my love for racing to any young Speedy Thompson.
I, Wayne Parrish, leave my ability to drive a school bus to anyone who can.
I, Carolyn Phillips, leave my job at the Princess Theater to Roy Jones with the saying, "Loaf while you work."
I, Becky Smith, leave my seat in French and my ability to cut a stencil to Brenda Johnson because "she is crazy enough to learn it."
I, Ernestine Stephenson, leave my ability to go to Raleigh and Knightdale every week-end to anyone who can get there.
I, Tommy Stephenson, leave my freckles to anyone who can put them all on one face.
I, Rayford Stevens, leave my desk in the senior homeroom to Wayne Stephenson.
I, Jimmy Stuart, leave my ability to "lay out" of school without getting caught to Dale Holmes.
I, Delores Vernelson, leave my ability to do bookkeeping to anyone that takes it.
I, Sybil Whittington, leave my job at Rose's 5-10-25¢ Store to anyone who wants to get rich in a hurry.
I, Bette Anne Wood, leave our faithful old Chrysler to my sister, Susan, with the saying, "If you can't drive it, park it."
I, Linda Faye Wood, leave my position as assistant editor to anyone lucky enough to have a staff to work with like the one of 1957-58.
I, Larry Young, leave my English book to Mrs. Lambert.

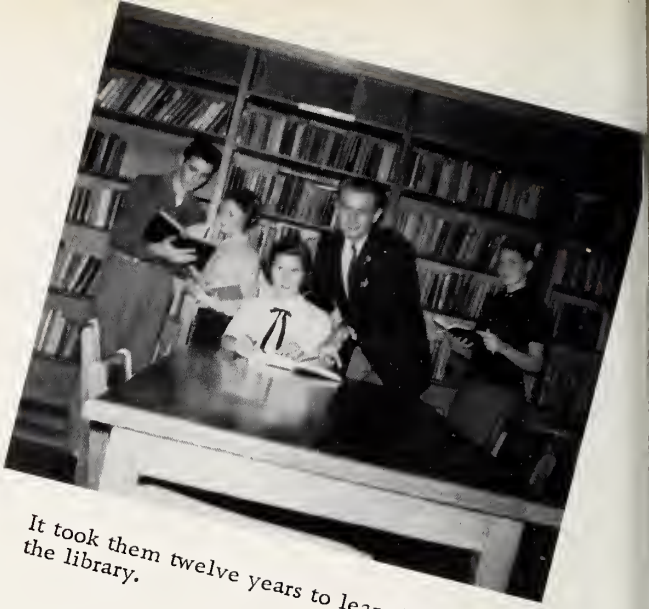
ACTIVITIES

Wonder if they know what they are doing.



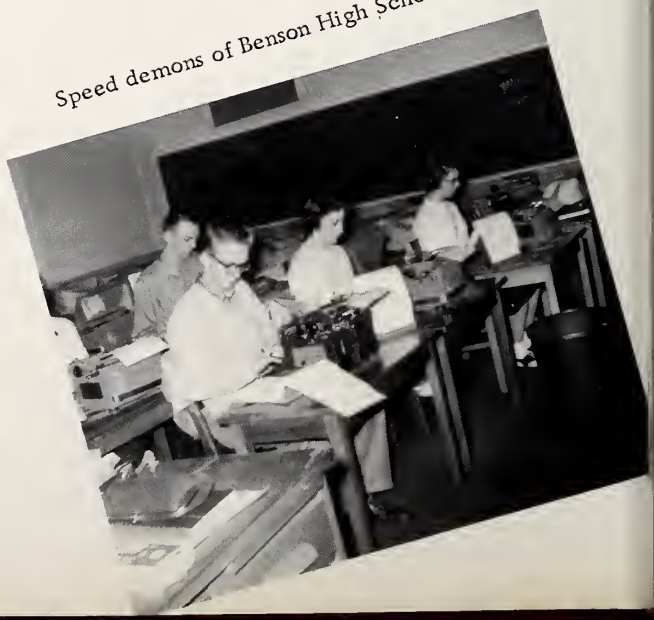
It took them twelve years to learn how to use the library.

The period they like best!

A Day with

Oui, oui, c'est francais.

Speed demons of Benson High School.



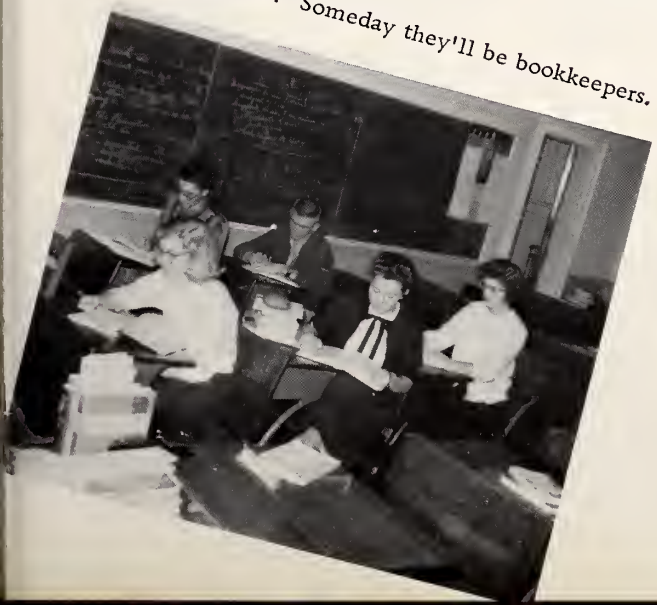
They blew the joint sky high!

Looks like chicken scratch to me.

the Seniors

Go to it, boys!

Just think! Someday they'll be bookkeepers.



Girls, please don't put me on the "square-up" list.

Baseball

Under the guiding hand of their coach, Judson L. Stephens, the boys pictured above won the Johnston County Championship in 1957. The Phantoms defeated Kenly two games straight for the title.

The Phantoms had a nearly perfect season with twelve wins, one loss, and one tie. The defeat was inflicted on the Phantoms by the Red Devils of Smithfield. The tie, which was with Four Oaks, was never played off.

The regular season play was ended by playing Coats two games. Then the Phantoms went to Kenly to start the all important three games series for the title. Landis Coats pitched a 5-3 win for the Phantoms in the first game. Edward Stephenson pitched a two-hitter for a 3-0 victory to give the Phantoms the Johnston County Championship.
